“WE ARE PROUD TO DEDICATE THE 1977 CENTURY TO MRS. MARION STAKAITIS”

Mrs. Marian Stakaitis has spent nine years as a secretary in local area schools. For the past six years she has been secretary in the main office here at Kelloggsville. During her tenure at KHS she has performed many invaluable functions on behalf of the school and its students. When one pauses to reflect on all of the tasks that Mrs. Stakaitis performs, it is not difficult to see that Kelloggsville High School would be in tough shape if we ever lose her services. Among other things, she: is the attendance secretary; reads daily announcements; assists seniors in the ordering and handing out of graduation announcements and caps and gowns; collects money and keeps records for all lock rentals and shop bills; dispenses change for Commons students; safeguards all monies collected by organizations by sorting and storing them in the office safe; orders all awards for the annual Honors Assembly; and serves as personal secretary to the Assistant Principal.

Mrs. Stakaitis is an inspiration to all of us at Kelloggsville. Despite the demands of her job, she never ceases to be able to greet a person with a smile, to maintain her sense of humor, to do yet another favor for whoever needs a helping hand. For your efforts, for the example you set daily, for being yourself, the editors of the 1977 Century are proud to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Marion Stakaitis. Thanks for everything!
